4. Purposes and legal basis of the processing

Your details will be collected to record you as a member, to communicate with you, to invite you to our events, to send you our newsletters and to send you surveys about our member support.

Your data will be processed on the basis of Art. 6 (1) lit. b of the GDPR in conjunction with our statutes.

5. Transfer of personal data to a third country

It is not planned to transfer your personal data to a third country or an international organization.

6. Duration of storage of personal data

Your data will be stored after the collection for the duration of your membership. Legal retention periods may also require storage.

7. Rights of affected person

Under the EU Data Protection Regulation, you have the following rights:

If your personal data are processed, you have the right to obtain information about the data stored about you (Article 15 GDPR).

If incorrect personal data are processed, you are entitled to a correction (Article 16 GDPR).

If the legal prerequisites exist, you can request the deletion or limitation of the processing and appeal against the processing (Articles 17, 18 and 21 GDPR).

In the event of a dispute, we will no longer be able to reach you as the participant of the event, and we would delete you from the mailing list for the event.

Since you have consented to data processing and data processing is carried out using automated procedures, you may be entitled to data portability (Article 20 GDPR).

If you make use of your rights mentioned above, the AHK will check whether the legal requirements for this have been met.

To exercise your rights, please contact the AHK.

For data protection complaints, you can contact the responsible supervisory authority:
